

Photo Credit: Jesse Silva Photography

The Olvera Street Merchants and El Pueblo Historical Monument present the

Día de los Muertos Festival

October 25 through November 2, 2016

Olvera Street is home to a colorful celebration that takes place over nine days. Merging ancient traditions with modern-day interpretations, we invite you to join us in honoring deceased loved ones. Let us remember their life on earth, and the beautiful spirits that live on after death. Viva la Vida!

Title Sponsor:

Sponsored in part by:

DEPARTMENT OF CULTURAL AFFAIRS
City of Los Angeles

www.olveraevents.com

Día de los Muertos on Olvera Street

Novenario Procession

October 25 through November 2 at 7:00pm

Nightly procession—a colorful parade of “Living Muertos” honoring ancient traditions and modern day celebrations. Champurrado & sweet bread provided after procession.

Festival Days

October 29 & 30 from 10:00am-8:00pm

November 1 & 2 from 4:00-8:00pm

Entertainment and face painting throughout the day, followed by Novenario.

Community Altars - “Las Ofrendas”

October 28 through November 2

On display in the plaza

Children’s Workshops for Elementary School Groups

October 19-21, 26-28, & November 1 & 2 ~ 10:00am-12:00pm

Reservations Required—contact Valerie Hanley (213) 716-1373

Teatro del Barrio Performace

October 25 through November 2, following the Novenario, Directed by Sergio Serdio

Teatro del Barrio presents: Noviembre Principia con Llanto (November Begins with Tears) by Ricardo Perez Quitt. Three women arrive at the cemetery to relive their memories while visiting deceased loved ones, presenting them with offerings of solitude, craziness and passion! (In Spanish, with English subtitles)

www.olveraevents.com

@olverastreetofficial

General Event Info: (213) 625-7074
El Pueblo Monument: (213) 485-6855